

Something New in 2016!

Free ~ COMMUNITY INTERACTIVE FORUM ~ Free
Talk, Listen, Share, Learn, Enjoy

The third of a monthly series program held every fourth Tuesday of the month on significant local events (recent or from distant past) that influenced or continue to change our way of life, culture, beliefs, practices and values as coastal-dwelling communities.

African American Leisure, Southern California Tales and Bruce's Beach

Alison Rose Jefferson, PhD

Historian and Heritage Conservation Consultant

April 26, 2016, 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm

Manhattan Beach Library Meeting Room, 1320 Highland Avenue

For All Cool Adults: Young, Mature, Older and Seniors

Hosts: MB Senior Citizens Resources Committee, County of Los Angeles MB Library, MB Parks & Recreation Older Adults Program, MB-Cultural Heritage Conservancy and MB Historical Society

Light Snack and Refreshment Served, Compliments of the MB Senior Citizens Resources Committee.

Information: Call 310-802-5447, Older Adults Program or 310-372-9505, MB Senior Citizens Resources Committee.
Need a Ride? Please Book 3 weeks ahead, Dial-a-Ride, 310-545-3500

Source of Photographs

Collections of Dr. Jefferson and the California African American Museum/Bernard Bruce, and MB Archives